My Teaching Style

I love bringing a playful and challenging approach to my yoga classes. The sequences I create and the opportunities you will have to explore within a pose, will challenge you to find your very own edge. You will leave class feeling re-energized and empowered!

Experience

Fitness and Yoga have been two of my passions for as long as I can remember. I have a Bachelors Degree in Physical Education and Adapted Physical Education, and a Masters Degree in Curriculum and Instruction. I was a Physical Education Teacher for 30 years in the Madison Metropolitan School District, a Social Emotional Learning Coach for an Alternative H.S. in MMSD, and an Adult Fitness and Yoga Specialist for Madison Community and Recreation. I completed my 200 hour Yoga Teacher Training in 2012 with Deborah Williamson. I developed and started Dragonfly's 200 Yoga Teacher Training and Yoga Up Training beginning in 2014. I love having a space where I am able to blend all of my passions together. I am currently the Director of Instruction and Teacher Training for Dragonfly Hot Yoga.

Favorite Pose

Warrior 2 – It feels so fierce, and love the energy of a class full of Warriors.

Why I Love Dragonfly

Seriously, Dragonfly is where it's at! There is no other studio like it. Upon taking my first class here, I felt a sense of warmth (besides the 100 degree heat – hee hee), community, and connection to the whole environment. The instructors, staff, and physical space just feels like a second home to me.

My Teaching Style

I love working with people and have a passion for wellness and education. I was a Registered Nurse for many years and then became an elementary school teacher. My students experienced mindfulness, breathing exercises and yoga as part of our school day. My goals are to help others find joy and to inspire life-long learning. I try to incorporate aspects of yoga beyond the asanas (poses) in my teaching.

Experience

Yoga has been a part of my life for many years. I have learned from a variety of teachers in different places and spaces, from the bank down the street to a silent studio in Thailand. I started exploring classes at Dragonfly in 2012. It didn't take long for me to recognize the positive benefits found with regular yoga practice. I have gained strength, flexibility, and balance, not only physically, but mentally and emotionally. I realize we are on a journey and that each day brings challenges and reasons to be grateful. I was a member of an amazing 200 hour Dragonfly Teacher Training team in June 2015. Our group was quick to bond and support one another. I was able to strengthen my personal practice while expanding my knowledge of many aspects of yoga. I completed my 300 hour advanced teacher training in June 2021.

Favorite Pose

Bird of Paradise – This pose has been, and continues to be, a challenge for me. Over time I have gained confidence and feel like a strong yogi as I evolve in my expression of this beautiful posture.

Favorite Quote

“Hope is the thing with feathers that perches in the soul...and sings the tune without words, and never stops... at all.”
– Emily Dickinson

Why I Love Dragonfly

Dragonfly offers a warm, welcoming and accepting environment. The variety of classes and instructors allow each of us to honor our bodies and spirits, depending on what we need at the time.

Little Known Fact About Me

My love for experiencing cultures has taken me to Fiji, Australia, New Zealand, China, Thailand, Mexico, Canada, Europe and many states. When I travel I explore yoga studios. I visited India on a yoga retreat in 2018 and hope to return in 2023.

DRAGONFLY HOT YOGA TEACHER CODE OF ETHICS

Yoga teachers understand and appreciate that teaching Yoga is a noble and ennobling endeavor, which aligns them with a long line of honorable teachers.

Yoga teachers are committed to practicing Yoga as a way of life.

Yoga teachers are committed to maintaining impeccable standards of professional competence and integrity.

Yoga teachers dedicate themselves to a thorough and continuing study and practice of Yoga, in particular the theoretical and practical aspects of the branch or type of Yoga that they teach others.

Yoga teachers are committed to avoiding substance abuse and, if for some reason, they succumb to chemical dependency will stop teaching until they are free again from drug and alcohol abuse. In that case, they will do everything in their power to stay free, including full accountability to a support group.

Yoga teachers will accurately represent their education, training, and experience relevant to their teaching of Yoga.

Yoga teachers are committed to promoting the physical, mental, and spiritual well-being of their students.

Yoga teachers, especially those teaching Hatha Yoga, will abstain from giving medical advice, or advice that could be interpreted as such, unless they have the necessary medical qualifications.

Yoga teachers particularly embrace the ideal of truthfulness in dealing with students and others.

Yoga teachers are open to instructing all students irrespective race, nationality, gender, sexual orientation, and social or financial status.

Yoga teachers are willing to accept students with physical disabilities, providing they have the skill to teach those students properly.

Yoga teachers will treat their students with respect.

Yoga teachers will never force their own opinions on students but appreciate the fact that every individual is entitled to his or her worldview, ideas, and beliefs. At the same time, however, Yoga teachers must communicate to their students that Yoga seeks to achieve a deep-level transformation of the human personality, including attitudes and ideas. If a student is not open to change or if a student's opinions seriously impede the process of communicating yogic teachings to him or her, then the Yoga teacher is free to refuse to work with that individual and, if possible, find an amicable way of dissolving the teaching relationship.

Yoga teachers will avoid any form of sexual harassment of students.

Yoga teachers wishing to enter a consensual sexual relationship with a present or former student should seek the immediate counsel of their peers before taking any action.

Yoga teachers will make every effort to avoid exploiting the trust and potential dependency of students and instead encourage them to find greater inner freedom.

Yoga teachers acknowledge the importance of the proper context for teaching and agree to avoid teaching in a casual manner, which includes observing proper decorum inside and outside of class.

Yoga teachers strive to practice tolerance toward other Yoga teachers, schools, and traditions. When criticism has to be brought, this should be done in fairness and with appropriate regard for the facts.

These Ethical Guidelines are not exhaustive, and the fact that a given conduct is not specifically covered by these Guidelines does not say anything about the ethical or unethical nature of that conduct. Yoga teachers always endeavor to respect and, to the best of their abilities, adhere to the traditional yogic code of conduct as well as to the law current in their country or state.
